If you're hungry for "chicken-fried prison music," order yourself some One Ton Pig.

The Jackson Hole band will play at 7 p.m. in Cody on March 10 for the Park County Pedalers fifth annual fundraiser concert at the Cody Auditorium.

The band formed in 2006, and is best-known for packing the Silver Dollar Bar every Tuesday night. The scene is a Jackson Hole tradition, and it's not uncommon to see local politicians cutting the rug with ski bums each week.

Singer/songwriter/guitarist Michael Batdorf's songs deal with love, loss, mountains, whiskey, dogs, fightin', and Lewis and Clark.

Justin Smith also is a songwriting force, and his vocals and guitar make the band what it is today.

Tim Farris covers mandolin and vocals. His background includes being the front man for Jet Black Ninja Funkgrass Unit.

Bassist Andy Calder loves to hold down the outlaw country grooves. His other projects include touring with experimental funk/jazz outfit The DJ Logic Band and otherworldly art-metal group Banyan.

Drummer Jason Baggett is a formally educated jazz musician. Listen carefully and you'll hear subtle Latin grooves, jazz shuffles, melodic drum fills and beats.

One Ton Pig has released two CDs. High On the Hog came out in 2008 and Big Norm in 2010. They also pull out cover tunes from their repertoire of more than 100.

During the event there will be cash beer, free snacks and soda, as well as a silent auction.

Tickets are $60 for a family, $40 for a couple, $25 for a single and $15 for students. They are available at Absaroka Bicycles, Sunlight Sports, at the door or by calling 272-3909.

All money raised will be used for bicycle paths and trails.
